Angelika Express	Best of and Rarities (Limited 10")	Ingo Donot (Donots): „Alles kann, alles muss. Schnottige Texte, sympathische Mittelfingerei, clevere Melodien, Chöre, eine geschmackvolle Gästeliste und alles dabei dann so dermaßen knackig und eingängig, dass hier weder die D-Punker noch die Indie-Popper meckern können. Angelika Express regeln und bleiben – richtig – großartig und stabil!“ Campino (Die Toten Hosen): „Ein tolles Album! Hohes Tempo, gewaltige Energie, schöne Melodien und jede Menge Texte zum Mitsingen. Nach dem Dom der zweite Grund, vielleicht auch einmal nach Köln zu fahren?“ Musikblog.de: „Soviel ‚Letzte Kraft Voraus‘, wie sie die Indie-Größen von Angelika Express hier zusammenkratzen, generieren viele Bands nicht einmal unter Volllast.“	Vinyl 10"	1
Briggs, Anne	Sing A Song For You (LP) (White Vinyl) (RSD2018)	The exclusive Record Store Day Edition pressed on WHITE 180g vinyl comes in brand new artwork in a gatefold sleeve with new sleeve notes contributed by Ken Hunt. Originally recorded in 1973 the album, but didn't see the light of day till many years later in 1997. Anne had been pregnant and the recordings were made a few weeks before the birth of her second child and consequently the released was held back due to Anne unhappiness with her singing at the time. Anne recalls " I Found the singing unsatisfactory. Indeed it was hard work at the time being so pregnant - hard to find sufficient breadth, and hard to play the bouzouki, with its' convex bellied back pressing into my convex bellied front, my arms seemed barely long enough to reach over to the strings and fingerboard". The album was originally released by Fledg'ling Records and is the only instance of Anne recording together with a band. The band was a short lived outfit Ragged Robin put together by folk musician and singer songwriter Steve Ashley with Richard Byers, Brain Diprose and John Thompson. Considered by many as 'a one of folks lost gems' Anne has influenced many of todays contemporary folk musicians, including Eliza Carthy and June Tabor. Bert Jansch, whom she lived with for a while in a squat in Londons Earls Court , described her a 'one of the most underrated singers'. He recorded many of her songs on his albums and she was his source for several of the traditional songs which he recorded, notably 'Blackwaterslide' which Anne taught him. The instrumental part was later copied and adapted by Led Zeplins Jimmy Page who recorded it as 'Black Mountain Side'.	Vinyl LP	1

Jansen	Die Unschuld Der Gebäude (LP) (RSD 2018)	Zum RSD 2018 feiert JANSEN sein 20-jähriges Bandjubiläum mit der Veröffentlichung des fünften Studio-Albums "Die Unschuld Der Gebäude". Son Volt	Okemah and the Melody of Riot (2LP)	(Limitierte 2x transparent rote Vinyl-LPs, 4-farbiges Gatefold, Bonustracks) Das 2005er Album der Americana-Band um Jay Farrar zum ersten Mal auf Vinyl First time vinyl pressing of Son Volt's 2005 release, Okemah and the Melody of Riot. Limited edition of standard weight, opaque red 2xLP with bonus tracks in a gatefold jacket Son Volt wurde 1994 von Jay Farrar in New Orleans, Louisiana nach der Auflösung der Band Uncle Tupelo gegründet. Die Band war sehr einflussreich in der Alternative-Country Bewegung der 1990er Jahre, die der Vorreiter dessen war, was wir heute als "Americana" kennen. Son Volts Album "Trace" wurde vom englischsprachigen Rolling Stone als eins der besten Alben des Jahres 1995 gewählt. Der Stil bewegte sich zwischen leisen Folk- und Countryballaden, die an Bob Dylans John Wesley Harding erinnern, bis zu Kneipenrock im Sinne von Neil Young mit Crazy Horse. Sie werden oft mit den frühen Wilco, den Jayhawks, und R.E.M. in der Automatic-for-the-People-Phase verglichen. Seit 2001 veröffentlichte Farrar verschiedenen Soloaufnahmen, 2005 reformierte er die Band, wobei jedoch keiner der ehemaligen Mitglieder außer ihm weiterhin dabei ist. Auf dem Transmit Sounds (via Thirty Tigers) erscheint nun "Notes Of Blue". Das Album durchweht der Geist des Blues, aber nicht in seiner Standard-Ausführung. Die beschwörende Stimmung am Mississippi, eines Fred McDowell, Skip James und Nick Drake mögen als grobe Ausgangspunkte Farrars gedient haben.	Vinyl LP	2

BYRDS	THE BYRDS	Side One contains broadcast recordings taken from TV and radio between December 1965 and March 1967. But it is Side Two that is of great historical significance for Byrdmaniacs. The Winterland show from December 1967 offers a glimpse of the Byrds as a three-piece band. David Crosby and Michael Clarke had left in the summer, but Clarke returned for this concert. The recording quality is not great but the sound is unlike any other Byrds recording, with McGuinn's 6-string Gretsch powering the group along on hard rock versions of their hits and others such as Miles Davis's Milestones and Jimmy Reed's Baby, What You Want Me To Do. COACH HOP	I LIKE TAYLOR SWIFT	3 minutes of perfect pop gushing rock'n'roll wonderment. Coach Hop is the new outfit from natty frontman Charlie Honderick. Previously to be found in the cockpit with festival-slayers-in-waiting 'Hamptons', Charlie is the possessor of a rich, at times almost John Grant-esque baritone and a stage demeanour not unlike fellow American Dave Lee Roth. Now teaming up with producer Natt Webb, Charlie has found the perfect foil for his songwriting. This is celebratory music that cut loose from any sense of self consciousness several hundred feet ago and it's highly likely you'll want to climb on board with him.	7"	1

FOSTER, JOSEPHINE	A WOLF IN SHEEPS CLOTHING	'A Wolf In Sheep's Clothing' (2006) was an unusual album, first because it does things with classical music that aren't usually done. The songs Josephine Foster sings here are classical pieces, written (the texts are German poems) by some of the greatest German composers of the 19th century, Franz Schubert, Robert Schumann, Johannes Brahms, and Hugo Wolf. "Foster has found perhaps the most appropriate vehicle yet for her singular and affecting talents – 19th century German art-songs, wholly reconstructed here via Foster's skeletal arrangements of voice and guitar" Pitchfork. Polly Harvey, Neko Case, M Ward and Isobell Campbell are part of the party, swaying breezily with Howe as old friends.	LP	1

GOAT	DOUBLE DATE	3000 worldwide. Colour vinyl - 'pool of blood' (blood red and clear, colour-in-colour vinyl). Double Date is an independent British horror film that was released to great applause in 2017. The film was written and starred Danny Morgan and was the debut movie directed by Benjamin Barfoot. Ben asked Goat to appear in the film in a club scene where he wanted to feature a band playing live. And when he and Danny were coming up with the idea for the movie they had Goat's 'World Music' album on repeat and it was decided it was bands infectious tribal grooves that he wanted in the scene. During filming of Goat's scene Ben and the band bonded and he invited Goat to score the whole film. The album contains all the original music Goat created to soundtrack the film plus the music they made for the trailer. MANFRED MANN	ALIVE	Side one consists of live broadcast versions of some of Mann's earliest records with Paul Jones on vocals. SHERMAN, BIM	LIGHTNING & THUNDER (MUNGO'S HI FI REMIX)	The soothing, bewitching singer Bim Sherman was a connoisseur's favourite until his untimely passing in the year 2000. TANGERINE DREAM	MIRACLE MILE	The soundtrack to the original motion picture directed by Steve De Jarnatt (1989) and twelfth film score from Tangerine Dream, the tension in 'Miracle Mile', both the music and on the screen, make it one of their strongest and a masterpiece. TELEVISION PERSONALITIES	CLOSER TO GOD	Dan Treacy provides the antidote to the opening of the ill-fated Disneyland Paris and the first McDonald's in China – it's a white knuckle ride through his innermost hopes and fears with off stage giggling, half heard dialogue and feedback that sounds like an opera is expiring in an adjoining L-shaped room. 'Closer To God' is a spiritual rollercoaster that sounds as poignant and pressing as ever. Remastered 2LP on marbled black and white vinyl. 1500 copies	LP	2
TELEVISION PERSONALITIES	PRIVILEGE	Remastered on black and white marbled vinyl. 1500 copies. Includes DL. 1989: It's nine years since John Lennon died, and five years since The Television Personalities have had an album released. Fire Records sign the latest incarnation of the TVPs and let them loose in a proper studio. Dan Treacy's muse is overcome by the versatility of Swatch watches and Back To The Future II, he doesn't allow the songs on 'Privilege' to bend to temptation. The world is still wrong; it's still unreal; as evidenced by the guest list at 'Salvador Dali's Garden Party'. Elsewhere there's a hint of '60s soap operas, from Cathy Come Home to The Wicker Man. VARIOUS ARTISTS	NEW YORK SOUL 67	Like its predecessor album which covered 1966, this LP brings together the best soul tracks recorded in New Orleans in 1967. At this time Southern soul was in the ascendant but as usual the musical background of the Crescent City – jazz, R &amp; B, the Caribbean – ensured that music recorded there always had a rhythmic twist and arrangements all of their own. No national hits here, just the sound of the streets. The heartbeat of the city.	LP	1	SOUL

VARIOUS ARTISTS	SOHO SCENE 60 - JAZZ GOES MOD	By early 1960, the first waves of Ornette Coleman's New York musical tsunami had begun to reach British shores, and the local model of "free-form" then being pioneered by Jamaican altoist Joe Harriott found more critical acceptance than its counterpart played by Coleman, but Harriott a maverick, and would have little direct impact on the work of the majority of his contemporaries. Elsewhere though it was the template of the Jazz Couriers and their Hard Bop-derived modus operandi that continued to set the style for local modern jazz groups and in its wake came several worthy successors; the MJ6 featuring Stan Tracey; "The Quintet" headed by Ronnie Scott and Jimmy Deuchar; the Bert Courtley/Ronnie Ross Jazztet; the Ken Wray/Bobby Wellins Quintet; Allan Ganley and Keith Christie's New Jazzmakers: the Jazz Five co-led by Vic Ash and Harry Klein.. Tubby Hayes was another young veteran who welcomed the rise of a new wave, in one interview singling out not only King but also pianist Brian Dee, drummer Tony Mann and tenorist Stan Robinson as young men to watch. Like all other UK modern jazzmen, Robinson's opportunities for growth and exposure were foreshortened; his début recording (with the Jazzmakers) was taped in December 1960 but up until its inclusion on this anthology it remained unissued.	LP	1

VARIOUS ARTISTS	TAMLA MOTOWN - LIVE IN EUROPE 1965	Dusty Springfield hosted this impromptu TV special to promote the Tamla Motown artists that were taking part in their first ever European tour in 1965. Remember, Motown had only just launched its label in Europe earlier that year and the artists were known only to a small number of soul aficionados , so ticket sales for the tour were very poor. Mary Wilson recalls that the acts referred to it as the ghost tour; sales were so slow that they had to draft in Georgie Fame to headline halfway through the tour.	LP	1
VARIOUS ARTISTS	TEXAS SOUL 67	As with previous sets, you may not know the singers, but you'll surely love the music, because on here you will find tracks for the feet and songs for the heart – truly all the best 67 sounds from the Lone Star state.	LP	1	SOUL

VARIOUS ARTISTS	MIGHTY INSTRUMENTALS R&amp;B-STYLE 1963	Cracking instrumentals from 1963, none of which ever got so much as a sniff at the charts. It's mostly guitar-led rockers with fiery picking from Roy Buchanan and Jimmy Spruill and some early fuzzbox action from Lou Josie of the Ho-Dads. Up in New York, King Curtis is blowing out on the Rinkydinks (later adopted as the Soul Train theme). From Eastside, Los Angeles, The Mixtures try out their new Wurlitzer electric on the M. G.'s Chinese Checkers. There's Louisiana sounds from The Mighty Trojans and James Booker and over in the Mid-West, we've got Little Milton Meddlin' and Jimmy McCracklin Trottin'.	LP	1

Over the years the two bands have gone on to build a formidable reputation for releasing many outstanding records, including their second collaboration after Aquarian Downer; the stunning 'GNOD Drop-out with White Hills II'. CURVED AIR	AIR CONDITIONING	Esoteric Recordings is proud to announce the release of a strictly limited edition Picture Disc LP of Curved Air's classic 1970 debut album "Air conditioning". Originally issued on the Warner Bros. label in November 1970, "Air conditioning" showcased the highly innovative talents of Sonja Kristina (vocals), ex-Royal College of Music student Darryl Way (violin), former Royal Academy of Music student Francis Monkman (electric guitar, piano, mellotron, VCS3 synthesiser), Rob Martin (bass) and Florian Pilkington-Miksa (drums). Taking their name from the album "A Rainbow in Curved Air" by American composer Terry Riley, Curved Air's debut album perfectly demonstrated the band's innovative musical approach, blending classical, electronic and folk music influences in their work and featuring Sonja Kristina's sublime vocals. Featuring such classic tracks as 'It Happened Today', 'Propositions', 'Vivaldi' and 'Situations', "Air conditioning" was a Top Ten hit in the UK and firmly established Curved Air as one of Britain's foremost progressive bands. Issued as THE first rock picture disc LP on its original release, this new picture disc edition has been cut at Abbey Road Studios and is a fitting tribute to a classic album by a legendary band.	LP	1	ROCK

TAD	Live at the Crocodile Café Seattle plus Bonus Songs	OPAQUE GREEN VINYL. TAD live show from 1995 at the Crocodile Café in Seattle. Plus bonus out-takes recorded in the studio. Poster included in the package. QUICK side: Studio recordings from sessions at two different studios, Jupiter Studios with Martin Feveryear, and Zachary Landsdowne at Electric Eel, both in Seattle in 1999. These songs were never before released until now. This is the last incarnation of the band, a three piece consisting of original members Tad Doyle and Kurt Danielson with addition of new drummer Mike Mongrain. The songs are yet another distinctive direction that the band blazed into. "QUICK" showcases songwriting that raised the bar musically and lyrically with increasing depth and meaning, yet unmistakably TAD in character, delivery and punch.	12"	1	ROCK
The Queers/Chris Barrows Band	split EP	BLACK AND GREEN VINYL. The Queers are here and have been one of the most influential pop-punk bands of the last 25 years. Here, The Queers contribute two songs to this split 7" with Chris Barrows Band, leader of the legendary and now defunct Pink Lincolns. The Queers cover "Beat Your Heart Out" originally performed by The Zeros and they have re-recorded "Everything's OK" which originally appeared on their 1998 album Punk Rock Confidential. Their side of the 7" serves as a preview of their re-recorded version of Punk Rock Confidential, which will come be out sometime in 2018. The Chris Barrows Band provides two new songs of the snotty and catchy punk that made the Pink Lincolns so popular. You can feel the frantiness and rowdiness in front man Chris Barrows voice that accompany their live shows. These two bands, in some form, have been playing on each other's records for years. Think of this record as the studio sequel to the 1994 split 7" "Live At Some Prick's House" which featured The Queers and Pink Lincolns. This 7" is an essential addition to any Queers or Barrows collection.	7"	1	PUNK

Doctor Who	Tomb Of Cyberman (Coloured Vinyl)	2LP • Exclusive to RSD2018, "The Tomb Of The Cybermen" is a classic Doctor Who story from 1967 featuring the second Doctor Patrick Troughton. Never released on vinyl, the story is two hours long spread across 2LP heavyweight silver vinyl, and featuring newly commissioned gatefold artwork, sleeve notes and on set photos. The Doctor faces the dreaded Cybermen in the digitally remastered soundtrack of the classic BBC TV story, with linking narration by Frazer Hines. It has legendary status amongst Whovians as the serial was believed lost for many years until discovered in Hong Kong in 1992. The action of The Tomb of the Cybermen follows directly on from that of the preceding serial The Evil of the Daleks, with the Doctor and Jamie welcoming the newly orphaned Victoria aboard the TARDIS. Commissioned as Doctor Who and the Cybermen Planet, this was the third encounter between the Doctor and his half-human, half-machine foes. It was co-written by Kit Pedler, who devised the Cybermen in The Tenth Planet, and Gerry Davis, the story editor who had helped develop them.	2LP	2

Marc Bolan & T. Rex	The Final Cuts (Picture Disc - numbered)	Picture disc LP in outer sleeve with hole • Originally released in 2006, this album was put together from multi-track tapes that had been returned to Bolan's son Rolan. Recorded at AIR Studios Oxford Street location, these tapes had been kept by the studio receptionist in her broom cupboard in Weston-Super-Mare, southwest England in the intervening years. These tapes make up the bulk of the final recorded studio work from the final twelve months of Marc Bolan's life. With the addition of four tracks recorded at Decibel Studios in Stamford Hill in April 1977, the picture is almost complete and we can enjoy and understand more fully in context the direction in which Marc Bolan's music may have been heading as he approached his thirties. Seven of the twelve songs on this CD were not released during Bolan's lifetime. • This special picture disc LP is the first time this material has been issued on vinyl, and is presented in a numbered die-cut sleeve. The End	Introspection / Retrospection (Coloured Vinyl)	2 LP coloured vinyl, ingatefold sleeve with inner sleeves • In 1965 The End arose from the glowing embers of the earlier Tuxedos, Innocents and Original Topics, and like many of their contemporaries evolved into a psychedelic group. Subsequently they re-invented themselves as blues rock outfit Tucky Buzzard in late 1969. Along the way, they won the support and patronage of the Rolling Stones' Bill Wyman, who in 1968 produced their sole album for Decca, "Introspection", the first LP in this set. Wyman also co-wrote their signature tune, the psychedelic classic "Shades Of Orange", although the band wrote all the rest of their material. • This 2 LP set pairs "Introspection" with "Retrospection", an LP of outtakes from the album sessions, issued briefly on vinyl in the mid-90s. The gatefold sleeve features artwork by legendary designer Phil Smee, including photos and ephemera, and a note by founder member Colin Giffin.	2LP	2

We loved the look, the attitude, the edge and the back to basics approach. We were the audience and the bands were mostly the same age as us. The energy and excitement feeding from stage to fans and back again was palpable..... This set is a testament to the vital role that Punk music, and all that it spawned, has played in each of our lives."	2LP	2

Star Trek	50 Anniversary - TV Series Soundtracks	(schwarz-transparent-blau limitierte Doppel-Vinyl (nur 500 Stück!), jede Vinyl ein Unikat) 50 Jahre Star Trek: Wir feiern das große Jubiläum eines besonderen Science-Fiction-Universums. Und was wäre Star Trek ohne seine einzigartige Musik? – Gerade die zeitlosen und eingängigen Melodien der Komponisten, allen voran die von Alexander Courage, Jerry Goldsmith, Dennis McCarthy und Jay Chattaway, haben es uns erst ermöglicht, in die fernen Welten und fremden Zivilisationen einzutauchen. Diese Vinyl will deshalb ein Streifzug durch die vielfach ausgezeichnete Musik der Serien und Serienepisoden sein: Eine liebevoll zusammengestellte Auswahl aus den Seriensoundtracks von The Original Series, The Next Generation, Deep Space Nine und Star Trek Voyager inkl. Linernotes. Zum RSD 2018 erscheint diese Doppel-Vinyl in einer limitierten schwarz-transparent-blauen Auflage. Jede einzelne Platte ist ein Unikat! Live long and prosper!	2LP	2	Soundtrack
